

Centum launches skill training centre under Delhi Police 'YUVA' scheme

New Delhi, December 7, 2018: Centum WorkSkills India Limited, a wholly owned subsidiary of Centum Learning, today announced the inauguration of a skill training centre in Aman Vihar, New Delhi, under Delhi Police's 'YUVA' programme. The training-cum-skill development centre aims to benefit the juvenile delinquents by imparting them with relevant skills and help get jobs under Pradhan Mantri Kaushal Vikas Yojna (PMKVY).

Shri Seju P. Kuruvilla (IPS) – DCP Outer District and Smt. Anita Roy - Addl DCP - II, Outer District, Delhi Police, were present at the launch. Shri Seju P. Kuruvilla (IPS) – DCP Outer District while addressing the august gathering, encouraged all students to undergo the training so that the same can help them in better employability.

The centre currently offers 'Self-employed Tailor' and 'Field Technician - networking and storage' for the youth. In addition to classroom training, emphasis is on hands on training for which the centre has IT lab as well as sewing machine lab. It also has zones dedicated for counselling and placement support. Centum has enrolled more than 120 students for the progame and the training will commence today.

With an aim to empower the underprivileged youth, 'YUVA' programme was launched in 2017 by Delhi Police in a tie-up with National Skill Development Corporation and the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII). The initiative provides job-linked skill training to the youth who are school dropouts, juveniles involved in crime, or those from families in a dire state due to the incarceration of the bread earner of the family. The centres provide job-linked training through its Sector Skill Councils which are connected to industry and thereby provide job opportunities.

Centum is playing a pivotal role in creating benchmark institutions that demonstrate aspirational value for employability led skill development training. Centum will continue to focus on quality and address the unique challenges facing the youth

Sanjay Bahl, CEO and MD, Centum Learning said, 'We are delighted to partner with Delhi Police and implement their initiative unique community uplifting initiative - 'Yuva'. The scheme has seen success since its commencement and we look forward to helping the youth by providing them with the opportunities to realize their potential and gain employment. In addition to this, we are expanding this across two more locations in Delhi.'

About Centum Learning:

Centum Learning, an ISO 9001:2015 certified 'Talent Transformation' MNC which focuses on Corporate Training, Livelihood Skilling, Skills at Schools & Colleges and CSR Partnerships. With over 3000 learning and development specialists and their domain expertise in 21 industry verticals, Centum has skilled more than 1.5 million people across 15 countries.

Centum has been widely recognized across various respectable forums – it has received 'Excellence in Training' award from World HRD Congress as well as 'Asia's Most Trusted Brand' (Training & Skilling) by International Brand Consulting Corporation, USA (IBC) in year 2018. Centum has been featured among the 'Top 15 Emerging Leaders in Training Outsourcing' worldwide and has also been recognized amongst India's Top 10 Great Place to Work® 2017-18.

Media Contacts:

Rajneesh Kanotra, Head – Marketing & Strategic Alliances

M: +91 9560588846

E- Rajneesh.Kanotra@centumlearning.com